Expression of Interest

The Expression of Interest must be hand delivered, emailed or postmarked by 5 pm on: Friday 29th July 2022

Expression of Interest process

Complete this Expression of Interest form by filling out the personal details, answering the following questions (up to half a page for each) and providing your referee information.

Purpose of the Committee

The Riverina Local Land Services Board recognises the importance and value of traditional knowledge in the management of natural resources and productive agricultural land throughout the Riverina Region.

Riverina Local Land Services Region encourages the Aboriginal community to share their insights and knowledge and seeks new nominees to continue the work of the Riverina Community Advisory Group to work in partnership to guide this process.

The Riverina Community Advisory Group is a high level committee of key Aboriginal community stakeholder representatives that provide advice to assist Riverina Local Land Services Region in its delivery of actions, services and functions to achieve the key regional priorities identified in the Riverina Aboriginal Engagement Strategy.

Please ensure you have read and understood the Terms of Reference documentation which forms part of the Expression of Interest package.
