NORTH COAST LOCAL LAND SERVICES

Aboriginal Women on Land - Yarning Soil and Harvest

About the project

North Coast Local Land Services is seeking expressions of interest from Aboriginal organisations, groups, LALC's and communities to be part of our Aboriginal women of the land program.

The program will install a complimentary garden bed including plants that the women group will be encouraged to learn how to grow, nurture and gain sustenance from.

The program includes sessions on Soil Health, Composting, Regenerative Agriculture, and even some women's business.

Phase One EOI's close on Tuesday June 14th ,2022.

- Phase one expressions of interest are limited.
- All EOIs will be assessed against the selection criteria.
- Successful expression of interests will be contacted directly with further details of the program timing and coordination of garden implementation/design and workshops.

This program is at no cost to your organisation. So, what are you waiting for Submit your interest today!

Please return the completed EOI to Kira Duroux at email kira.duroux@lls.nsw.gov.au or phone Kira on 0456 554 812
